

Safety Measures in Church

1. The church will be cleaned/sanitized before each service when the public may be present, especially areas that are commonly touched (railings, doors, backs of pews, etc.). Please keep the churches well ventilated by opening windows or by turning on air-conditioner.
2. Social distancing of 6 feet will be maintained, people are encouraged to wear face masks and gloves, while seating or standing in the pews – between non-family member
3. Veneration of icons, etc. should be done without touching or kissing them.
4. There should be no social gatherings after the services.
5. The Divine Liturgy books were printed. Please, take one and keep it in your car, and every time you come to church, bring it with you.
6. Parishioners should be reminded that if they are not feeling well that they should stay at home and reminded that they are not bound by the Sunday obligation if they are ill.
7. The streaming of the Divine Liturgy will continue for those who cannot make it to church every Sunday at 10AM on YouTube and FaceBook of Catholic Explorer. Please, subscribe and especially like each video, so that we can reach more and more people.
8. For Communion, stay in your pews; the priest and deacon will wear gloves and masks and use disposable spoons, one per person, so there is no cross-contamination of any kind. He will come to each person and distribute communion and then dispose of the spoons after each service.
9. Collection baskets will be left in designated places so that parishioners may leave their offerings without passing around baskets.
10. Sacrament of Penance will be administered in safe space with keeping social distance.
11. Celebration of baptisms, weddings and funerals are allowed if all precautions listed above are observed.

Tone 7

By Your cross You destroyed death; You opened Paradise to the thief; You changed the lamentation of the myrrh-bearers to joy, and charged the apostles to proclaim that You are risen, O Christ our God, offering great mercy to the world.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

No longer shall the dominion of death be able to hold humanity, for Christ went down shattering and destroying its powers. Hades is bound. The prophets exult with one voice. The Savior has come for those with faith, saying: "Come forth, O faithful, to the resurrection!"

Now and forever and ever. Amen.

O all-praised treasury of our resurrection, we hope in you, bring us up from the pit and depth of sins, for you have saved those subject to sin by giving birth to our Salvation, O Virgin before childbirth, and Virgin in childbirth, and still a Virgin after the childbirth.

Prokeimen:

The Lord will give strength to His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace.

Bring to the Lord, O you sons for God; bring to the Lord young rams.

The Lord will give strength to His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace.

Alleluia:

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

It is good to give praise to the Lord; and to sing in Your name, O Most High.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

To announce Your mercy in the morning and Your truth every night.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Communion Verse:

Praise the Lord from the heaven; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia. (3)

Festival of Baskets

FESTIVAL OF BASKETS

Will be held Sunday, September 13, 2020 from 10:00am to 3:00pm. Drawing will begin at 2:30pm.

Support your parish family by donating a basket. You may start placing your baskets in the front pew of the church anytime. Deadline for drop off at the Church is August 30, 2020 or call Sandy Bolvin at 814-934-4114. If you wish to make a monetary donation instead of a basket, you may place your donation in an envelope and clearly mark the envelope "Basket Party" and place it in the collection basket.

Joke of the Week

An explosion last week killed a wild-living navy boilerman and he found himself in hell. Being used to stoking fires and extremely hot temperatures, he found hell actually quite comfortable. When Satan went to check out the new arrival, he found him sitting in his room smiling. "You like this?" Satan asked. "Yes, sir," said the sailor, "this feels like a spring day to me." Not wanting the new guy to be too comfortable, Satan turned up the heat a bit. When he went back the next day to see how his new arrival was doing, the sailor was still happy; he hadn't even broken a sweat. "I like this kind of weather," he told Satan. For the next few days, Satan turned up the heat more and more, but each day the Sailor looked as comfortable as ever. By Sunday, Satan decided to try something different. Rather than turn up the heat even more, he turned it off and turned on the air conditioning. Icicles formed in the sailor's room! When he checked on the guy, the room was icy and he was shivering, but he had a grin from ear to ear, bigger than ever. Satan was exasperated! "Why are YOU so happy?" he demanded from the sailor. "It's FREEZING in here!" "Well, I'm from Boston," said the sailor, "and evidently the Red Sox just won the World Series!"
